Child Protection Policy

GOOSH follows a strict policy of seeking parent/guardian permission before using images which show children on the GOOSH website.

No other private information about children is ever published on the website such as surnames or contact details.

Where permission is granted by parents/guardians, GOOSH operates the following policy on its website regarding the use of photographs, to ensure the privacy and safety of children attending GOOSH:

1. Where children are named, only their first names are given;
2. Where a child is named, no photograph of that child is displayed;
3. Where a photograph is used which shows a child, no name is displayed.

By observing these points, GOOSH ensures that visitors to the website cannot link images of children to names of children.

When choosing photographs for the website, GOOSH is mindful of the way children may appear in them, and will not include images which are in any way inappropriate, such as close-up portrait shots of individual children.
